Operation Scarlet's 2019 Rescue Dog of the Year

Hi Folks, my name is Abby. I was rescued in 2007 when I was four months old. I was taken to a shelter in pretty bad shape. I had mange, ringworm and my front legs were extremely bowed and my feet turned under. I could not stand and I could not walk. I had to have leg casts on my front legs. Every two weeks I got new ones because my legs were growing. After the last set of casts were removed, my little legs were nice and straight. Without your help, I would have been crippled. I would really appreciate your vote.

Hi, my name is Jax. I was rescued November 2014 from the Manhattan shelter in NYC. I was hit by a car and had extensive hip damage. I had to have femoral head resection on one hip and extensive physical therapy including water treadmill therapy. Several months later I was ready to join my new family. I have been living the good life in New Jersey and visiting nursing homes bringing happiness to the elderly. I am told that I am the epitome of sweetness. How about voting for me.

My name is Mr. Wu. I was rescued on the first day of January in 2017. It was a bitter cold day when Operation Scarlet received a call from a person in Pittsburgh regarding my plight. I was no longer wanted by my family and they chose to keep me tied outdoors. Operation Scarlet jumped into action right in the middle of a pork and sauer kraut dinner on New Year's Day and drove to Pittsburgh to rescue me. I am a very sweet boy who did not deserve that kind of treatment. I have now put that all behind me and I am enjoying my new life in PA with a great mom and another canine companion. Please vote for me.

Hello, my name is Yogi. I was rescued in 2014. I was a stray who came from a shelter in New York state. It was evident that I was a puppy mill dog that was kept in a wire pen. My little feet were extremely deformed from walking on wire. Even though I did not have a great start in life, I certainly hit the jackpot when my new family adopted me in 2014. I am really loving my family that also includes a baby brother. I was proud to be a great ambassador for Operation Scarlet in November when I was the poster Pei for the Extra Give fundraiser. I would love your vote.
